Quiz for Topical Medication Administration

1. Which of the following is not a common form of topical skin medication administration in schools? a. Ointment b. Patches c. Solutions d. Gelatin 2. Which of the following is not an important consideration when applying a medicated patch? a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right droue	NAME		DATE SCHOOL
 b. Patches c. Solutions d. Gelatin 2. Which of the following is not an important consideration when applying a medicated patch? a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug<td>1.</td><td colspan="4">Which of the following is not a common form of topical skin medication administration in schools?</td>	1.	Which of the following is not a common form of topical skin medication administration in schools?
 b. Patches c. Solutions d. Gelatin 2. Which of the following is not an important consideration when applying a medicated patch? a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug<td></td><td>a.</td><td>Ointment</td><td></td>		a.	Ointment
 d. Gelatin 2. Which of the following is not an important consideration when applying a medicated patch? a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location
 a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the fir		c.	Solutions
 a. Measure the correct distance from boney prominences. b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right location 		d.	Gelatin
 b. Application of hairy surfaces should be avoided. c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 	2.	Which of the following is not an important consideration when applying a medicated patch?
 c. Rotation of medication application sites. d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right location
 d. Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication. 3. What is the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch? a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right location
 a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location
 a. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, write date, time and initials on patch, open package and apply medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 		d.	Note the condition of skin to monitor side effects of the medication.
medicated patch, remove gloves and record on medication administration record. b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location	3.	What is t	the most correct sequence of event for administration of a topical medicated patch?
 b. Apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 				apply patch, remove gloves and wash hands, and records on medication administration record. c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location				n
 c. Record on medication administration record, wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands. d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location				age
 d. Wash hands and apply gloves, check the first 5 rights, open package and apply medicated patch, write date, time and initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 			* initials on patch, remove gloves and wash hands and record on medication administration record. 4. What is most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch? a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location				ne and
 a. Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication. b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location
 b. Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged. c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 	4.	What is m	most important reason to press firmly but not to massage an applied medicated patch?
 c. Massaging a medicated patch can result in skin irritation. d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 		a.	Massaging a medicated patch can result in the untimely release of medication.
 d. Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch. 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location 		b.	Massaging a medicated patch can cause the medicated patch to become dislodged.
 5. Which of the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications? a. Right time b. Right drug c. Right location
a. Right timeb. Right drugc. Right location		d.	Massaging a medicated patch can cause cross contamination with the person apply the patch.
b. Right drugc. Right location	5.	Which of	f the following is not considered one of the first five rights or guidelines to administer medications?
c. Right location		a.	Right time
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
d. Right route
		d.	Right route

Correct Answers: ____/ 5